

Cabbage Butterfly Data Dictionary

- Continent: the expanse of land where the cabbage butterfly was found
- Core ID: the specific identification for each cabbage butterfly found
- Country: the distinct territory in which the cabbage butterfly was found
- Decimal latitude: distance from north to south of the equator by using decimal fractions of a degree
- Decimal longitude: distance from east to west of the meridian by using decimal fractions of a degree
- LW length: the length of the cabbage butterfly's left wing
- LW width: the width of the cabbage butterfly's left wing
- RW length: the length of the cabbage butterfly's right wing
- RW width: the width of the cabbage butterfly's right wing
- Sex: one of the two main categories in which the cabbage butterflies are divided based on their reproductive abilities
- Year: the year in which the cabbage butterfly was found